SUMMER 2016

FROM THE MANSE

Dear Friends

In the warm May sunshine I write as we find ourselves between the days of Ascension and Pentecost, having celebrated the ascension of Jesus but still, in terms of the Church year, waiting to celebrate the great festival of the Holy Spirit.

For the first disciples, this was a time of waiting, a time to reflect, a time for patience and prayer. Jesus had left them behind on earth with the command to preach the gospel to every nation, but the promised helper had not yet come upon them to inspire them and fill them with a renewed sense of purpose.

There are moments in everyone's life, when the demands of work or family or friends mean that we can feel overwhelmed by a continuous series of events, without time to stop and think, or time to relax and restore ourselves physically, emotionally and spiritually. All the wonders of modern technology, which do so much to improve our lives, can also become sources of stress, adding to the feeling that modern life is conducted at an ever-faster pace as we try to keep all the plates spinning.

Usually, when things run away with us, some at least of those spinning plates come crashing down. There is a lesson here for all of us, that if we want to follow the example of Jesus, we will find in the gospels that he regularly took time off to be alone or with a small number of his disciples, far from the demands of the crowds that followed him, far from the daily demands of the ministry he pursued among the people.

The Church is often called to be counter-cultural, and so we should be in this as in other things, learning to walk at a different pace from that of the world around us, making time and space for ourselves and for God. Times of retreat, times of prayer, times for reflection and recreation as we, like the first disciples, wait patiently to see what God will do next, and prepare ourselves, heart and soul, to respond.

With all my best wishes for a happy and fulfilling summer,

From the Session Clerk

At the Kirk Session meeting on Wednesday, 11th May, I informed the members that due to health reasons, our Church Officer, Mr Robert Wyllie, has decided to stand down from his Post. Robert was appointed Church Office in January 1978 and over the years he has carried out his duties assiduously and with great diligence and we recognise the sterling service he has given as a faithful servant of the Holy Rude. It would be impossible to count the number of hours Robert has devoted to carrying out these duties and over the years he has ensured that all arrangements have been in place for Services, concerts, events and meetings. We are indeed indebted to Robert for the dedication he brought to the post of Church Officer and also to his wife, Elma, who has been covering some of his duties over the past few years. The Session was pleased to appoint Elma to the Post of Church Officer as from the 1st June and of course Robert will still be around to lend a hand or give a word of advice should it be required.

Over the summer months, there are a number of special events being held in the church, the main one being the dedication of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders Memorial Window on Friday, 1st July at 11.30 am. The window will be dedicated by the Rt. Revd. Dr Russell Barr, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland and I am sure this will be a most memorable occasion. As you know at the Morning Service on Sunday 22nd May, the Standard of the No. 43 Fighter Squadron RAF was laid up in the Church and a Memorial Plaque was dedicated. The Plaque is situated on the South Wall of the South East Aisle and the Standard will hang from the pillar opposite. I have included a photograph of the plaque on the next page.

The Ministry of Welcome Team is busy welcoming many visitors to the Church from all parts of the world and we have also had numerous enquiries from overseas groups regarding visiting times, possible guided tours and opportunities to perform short concerts for visitors. I am sure that the two splendid banners displayed on the railings outside the church are helping to attract the many visitors.

I take this opportunity to remind you that the King James VI Coronation Lecture will take place on Friday evening, 29th July at 7.30 pm and on Sunday, 10th July the renowned Australian organist, Thomas Heywood will give a recital in the church at 7.00 pm. Further details on both these events appear within the pages of this Newsletter.

I hope you all have an enjoyable summer and hopefully it will be an improvement on last year.

A laugh is just like sunshine, it freshens all the day,
It tips the peak of life with light, and drives the clouds away.
The soul grows glad that hears it and feels its courage strong,
A laugh is just like sunshine for cheering folks along.

A laugh if just like music, it lingers in the heart,
And where its melody is heard the ills of life depart;
And happy thoughts come crowding its joyful notes to greet:
A laugh is just like music for making living sweet.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Easter was a busy time at the Holy Rude with concerts by both the University Choir and the City Choir. The concerts were on consecutive nights, which meant a hectic time for the duty Elders and Church Officer. I would like to thank members of the congregation who helped organise and move chairs from the Tolbooth and Cowane's to the church because the new chairs the Friend's had ordered had not arrived. The chairs were needed for both concerts. Both concerts went well and both choirs, once again, thanked the church for the warm welcome they always receive.

The church choir sang a very complicated Anthem in the lead up to Easter. Crucifixus by Antonio Lotti is written in 8 voice parts with 2 soprano, 2 alto, 2 tenor and 2 bass parts. Having only two tenors meant that each tenor was singing a part on their own. It is a piece that I had wanted to do for several years and we finally got round to singing it this year. It was greatly appreciated by the congregation who were in church that day.

Some of you might wonder why the Amen that the choir sings at the end of the service changes every two months. For April and May the Amen is called "Picken" The next Amen for June & July is called "White" we've also sung others called Gibson, Blewitt, Wood and many others. The eagle-eyed amongst you will have realised that they are all named after members of the church choir. So far I have written 31 Amens. In that total there are some for people who have occasionally helped out in the choir over many years, everyone enjoys hearing "Their" Amen sung.

In the last Newsletter I mentioned that we had a new choir member in Hongwen Picken, since then we have gained another member in the bass section. William Picken, who is the son of Hongwen and Rev. Dr. Stuart Picken has also joined the choir.

We are always looking for new members for the choir, please contact me, or any member of the choir for information.

Organ Appeal

Update - May 2016

I am pleased to pass on the information that we have now raised just over £53,000 so far for the Organ Appeal. We are looking for various trusts to apply for funding, one of which will be the Heritage Lottery Fund.

On July 10th Thomas Heywood will be giving a recital at 7.00pm. Last summer Thomas, who is an Australian virtuoso performer, came to the Holy Rude to record a DVD / CD and was so impressed with our organ that he wanted to come back. If all the editing and mastering of the recording is completed in time it will also be the official launch of this recording. His playing is absolutely fantastic, and now that we have the big screen you can also see the organist playing at the console. I will also be organising some more recitals over the summer period, please keep an eye on the Stirling Observer and the Order of Service sheets on Sundays for details. Both Lorna Paterson and Janet McNair are great at putting the information in these publications for me.

We are continuing to get "sponsor a pipe" forms back, but need to keep up the momentum of fundraising over the coming months so as to keep the fund growing all the time. If you have any ideas for fundraising towards the organ fund, please let me know. I would like to say a big thank you to all the people who have donated money to the appeal so far, your generous donations will help us reach our target.

There is a display of photos and information at the back of the church, please have a look at this to see some of the "insides" of the organ.

SOS - Save old Stamps for World Mission

Last year's Mission Project in support of the Church of Scotland HIV Programme raised £3511. The 2016 Appeal which started in March is raising money for the Othara Eco-spirituality Centre run by our partner the Church of South India. The Church of South India recently opened the Othara Eco-spirituality Centre where people can learn about climate change and the importance of conserving the earth God has given us.

The Church of South India is a Protestant church in India and a member of the World Council of Churches. It was established in September 1947 as a result of the union of churches of varying traditions including Presbyterian, Anglican, Methodist, Congregational and Reformed and is the largest Protestant Church in India.

This year the Stamp Project will support some of their ecological innovations including the harvesting and re-use of rain water, the establishment of a biogas plant to power the kitchens and the development of a small dairy and chicken farm for native breeds. Through retreats and conferences the Church of South India hopes that the knowledge people gain at the centre will inspire them to live sustainably and encourage others in their community to do the same because "caring for the earth" is not only a calling, but a lifestyle.

Please continue your generous and much appreciated support of the Church's World Mission Stamp Appeal. The collection box for both British and Foreign stamps is on the desk at the back of the church or you can give them to me or one of the welcoming elders at the Sunday morning Service of Worship.

How the World Mission Stamp Appeal works

Used stamps are gathered in, sorted and sold to collectors. Administration costs are minimal as the skilled work of preparing and selling of the stamps is undertaken by home workers. The success of the scheme depends on the support given to it by congregations, organisations and individuals throughout Scotland who regularly send in packets of used stamps. If you cut the stamps from the envelope please leave at least a quarter of an inch (just under one centimetre) all around the stamp, and do not attempt to remove the paper from the back of the stamp. I am very happy to trim any excess paper round the stamps when getting them ready for posting.

MODERATOR'S TRIBUTE TO QUEEN

The Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has paid tribute to the Queen on the occasion of her 90th birthday.

The Rt Rev Dr Angus Morrison said that the Church gave thanks for the Queen's 'years of devoted service rendered to the country and Commonwealth'.

Dr Morrison and his predecessors also commented on the Queen's concern and knowledge of the Church of Scotland.

The Moderator said: "As Moderator, and on behalf of the Church of Scotland, it gives me great joy to offer our united and affectionate congratulations to Her Majesty the Queen on the happy occasion of her 90th birthday.

"Throughout these 90 years Her Majesty has been a regular visitor to Scotland and Her Majesty's love for and appreciation of Scotland is widely known.

"Similarly, Her Majesty's interest in and commitment to the Church of Scotland has been demonstrated in countless ways. A happy relationship has long existed between Church and Monarchy. Her Majesty has attended, on more than one occasion, the Church's annual General Assembly. And when not there in person Her Majesty has been represented by Lord High Commissioners of the highest calibre which Her Majesty personally appoints.

"In the Church of Scotland we are greatly heartened and we rejoice in Her Majesty's unwavering commitment and witness to the Christian faith, as well as affirming the secure place of other faiths in Britain today. Her Majesty's regular and engaged attendance and easy relationship with the Kirk in Scotland is a great source of encouragement and joy.

"At this significant milestone in the life of our Queen, we give the God of steadfast love and faithfulness thanks for Her Majesty and for all the years of devoted service rendered to the country and Commonwealth. For the future, we pray God's continuing blessing on Her Majesty, granting her, together with His Royal Highness Prince Philip, continuing health, strength and grace, as they continue to serve us all."
